Celebrating Seventeen Decades of the Toodyay Agricultural Show with a Decennial Dance

Get ready to dance through the decades as Toodyay Agricultural Show commemorates its rich history with the Decennial Dance on Saturday 31 August, 2024.

To be hosted at the iconic Toodyay Memorial Hall, the evening promises an enchanting blend of nostalgia and festivity, set against the backdrop of warm country hospitality. Attendees are encouraged to embrace the theme of "Op Shop Chic" or bring out their own wardrobe gems for a night of timeless elegance and fun.

"Tod Woodward, better known as The Dinner Singer, returns to his roots in Toodyay to serenade guests with his soulful voice and electrifying guitar skills," said Karen Dore, President. "Whether you prefer classic ballroom or disco beats, we just know that Tod's live repertoire and DJ sets will keep everyone on their feet."

In addition to musical delights, Temptations Catering will tantalise taste buds with hearty savouries, complemented by a delightful selection of sweets and warm beverages served by Blue Gum Coffee from their charming van. Cold drinks will be available on a cash basis thanks to the support of local volunteers.

"This event isn't just about celebrating our agricultural heritage—it's about bringing our community together for a night to remember," added Karen. "We invite everyone to join us in honouring seventeen decades of the Toodyay Agricultural Show."

Tickets are available for $100 per person or $170 per couple. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit <https://toodyayagshow.com.au/forms/dance/>.
